

Jackson County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT GAINESBORO, TENN.

E. W. TARDY, Editor
G. B. GAILBREATH, Business Manager

Subscription price,

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice in Gainesboro, Tenn., under Act of Congress, 1879

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

ONE YEAR$1.50
6 MONTHS85
3 MONTHS45
STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

Foreign Advertising Representative
THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

SUGAR CREEK.

Health of the community is not very good, as nearly everybody have colds.

Little Oleo Harris is very sick at this writing.

We are having some good rains which are badly needed.

Winton Hix and family spent Sunday with A M Odum and wife.

The protracted meeting began at Antioch Sunday. Uncle Bobbie Masters delivered two interesting sermons Sunday. Bro. Griger came in Monday to continue the meeting the remainder of the week.

Elmer Barlow left Sunday for California. We regret to see so many of our good boys leaving this part of the country, but wish them success and a happy return to their parents in old Tenn.

Oakly Brown and Beulah Anderson were quietly married Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents. They went to Mr Brown's home on Roaring river, where a delicious dinner was served.

Bro. John Pendergrass will begin a protracted meeting at Fairview next Sunday. Everybody is invited to attend.

COOKEVILLE R. 7.

The election passed off quietly here.

R. D Ramsey was elected constable by a majority of 89 votes, over his opponent, T G Phillips.

Wiley Gentry conducted the Baptist meeting at Dotson Branch last week.

Vint Daily has returned from Ohio.

Ben A. Fox attended meeting at Trinity last week.

J W Holloway and wife was here last week on a visit.

Harve Ray and wife visited George Ray recently.

Corn in this community has dropped from $2.00 to $1.50 per bushel.

P D Bartlett was at Gentry's cross roads last week.

Meeting commenced at Fairview Sunday, conducted by Bro Graves.

School at Fairview is progressing nicely under the management of Prof Phillips.

Mrs W F Gentry, of Morrison's creek visited relatives here last week.

The Baptist meeting closed at Dotson Branch Sunday.

Mrs Jerdan Rogers of Martin's creek, visited relatives here recently.

Pleas Leffew has put in a telephone on the Dotson Branch exchange.

All who owe dues are requested to pay the Dotson Branch Home Telephone Co., at once.

J. J. Henly, age 35 years, 9 mos. 29 days, died July 24th, 1920. He leaves a wife, 2 girls and one boy.

Funeral services were conducted by Elder John W. Fox and Rev. Byrd Phillips. He was laid to rest in the Smith Chapel cemetery. His many friends donated his family about $50.00.

LOCALS

Cookeville Fair August 26-28-28. Good attractions and lots of fun.

John C. Sadler and John McCawley are spending the week-end in Nashville.

Ravine McGlasson is visiting her brother, Fred McGlasson, at Aberdeen, Miss.

Register, Garland Jackaon, has gone to Huntsville, Ala., for a ten days visit to his uncle, Sam Johnson.

Bev Minor Jr., of Cookeville, after spending a week as the guest of Fred Tardy, Jr., has returned home.

Mrs. D. C. Morgan and daughter, Celia Crawford, are the guests of relatives at Red Boiling Springs this week.

Mrs. Ada Tinsley, of near Columbus, Miss., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. L. Quarles several days this week.

Mounce Stewart, of Anniston, Mo., who has been visiting P. F. Nanhooer on R-1, for the past week, returned home Tuesday.

Neville Roberts, who has been in the employ of Dodge Brothers Detroit, Mich., for the past 3 months, returned home Tuesday.

Joo C. Tinsley leaves first of the week for Denver, Tenn., where he has accepted a position as principal of the school at that place.

Miss Aleen McDearman leaves the latter part of the week for Monoville, Smith county. where she goes to take charge of the school.

Rev. Dow Ensor of Sparta began a protracted meeting at Flynn's Lick Sunday, assisted by the local pastor, Rev. A. R. Gibbons.

Floy Johnson has returned from a week's visit with relatives at Cookeville. She was accompanied by her cousin, Elsie Young, who is her guest this week.

Miss Lella Draper, milliner for Quarles & McCawley Co., is in Nashville this week attending the L. Jonas Hat Show and getting acquainted with the latest styles for the fall season.

L. C. Quarles and Misses Mona Sadler and Dorothy Anderson motored to North Spring Wednesday afternoon and spent the night with Miss Sadler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sadler.

Harlan Lawless, of Buck Branch, brought to town Tuesday, a yellow catfish, which weighed 27 pounds. This is the largest one that has been sold here this season. The fish netted Mr. Lawless about $5.

Atty. L. M. Botts, of Whitleyville, who has been laid up with a severe cold for several days, was in Gainesboro today. Mr. Botts recently graduated in the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, and will open a law office in Gainesboro in a short time.

Bro. Rose, who has been in this county several weeks conducting revival meetings, received a telephone call from his home in Kentucky Monday night informing him that his wife was seriously ill. He was at Whitleyville when the message was received and left immediately for his home.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Gainesboro Mission, will be held at Gainesboro, Aug. 23, 10:30 a. m. This is the last conference meeting of this year and all the officials of the church are urged to be present. Presiding Elder, T. W. Noland will preach for us Sunday night Aug. 22.

Miss Doris Haile and sister, Margaret, who have been attending school at Nashville, have returned to Gainesboro, where they will spend their vacation with their father, B. M. Haile.

B. S. Monor, of Cookeville, was here this week.

J. H. Stafford is able to be out again, after a few days illness.

Ridley Draper was out of the store a few days this week on account of a bad cold.

H. L. McDearman, D. B. Johnson and Chas. Brown transacted business in Nashville several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wright, of Nashville, are the guests of Mrs. Wright's father, J. P. Gailbreath of near Flynn's Lick.

Mrs. T. L. Gist and children, spent the week-end at Celina, where they visited relatives and attended the Clay County Fair.

Charlie Midgett and sister, Miss Selma Midgett, of near Watertown, were the guests of their brother, J. C. Midgett and wife, several days this week.

Misses Dorris and Willard Johnson, entertained at Rook, Monday evening. A number of guests were present and a delightful time was enjoyed by all.

W. A. Overton, representative from this county, was here Monday, enroute to Nashville, where he will attend the special session of the General Assembly, now in session.

FOR SALE—Big Type Poland China Hogs. I have 10 hogs of this type that will average about 50 pounds. Will sell single or in pairs at right prices. If you are interested, see me at once. J. A. Meadows, Gainesboro, Tenn., R-1, (Free State) Home phone.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke McGlasson after a weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lee McGlasson, have returned to their home in Indianapolis, Ind. They were accompanied by his brother Freeman, who will remain there thru the remainder of the summer.

L. B. Anderson and son, Shields, of Hamilton, Miss., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Quarles this week. Mr. Anderson reports all the Jackson county citizens in his community in fine health, and well satisfied with everything in general.

FOR SALE—A Practically brand new Tennessee, 3-inch wagon, with 5 barrel bed, together with a mule and horse team, as good a pullers as was ever hitched to a wagon. I want to sell the whole cheese in a pile. If you want them see me at once. Dr. C. E. Reeves, Gainesboro.

Leo H. Boles, former president of the Nashville Bible School, will begin a protracted meeting at the Christain church, Sunday August 15, at 11 a. m. Bro. Boles is an interesting and forceful talker, and everybody is cordially invited to attend the services. Preaching afternoon and night. Everyone is urged to come out and hear him.

Mrs. W. B. Wooten was called to Chattanooga, Monday by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Raggio Young, who is suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. A message was received Monday stating that Mrs. Young had undergone an operation at 10 o'clock that morning, and was getting along nicely. The good news was very consoling to her many friends and relatives in Gainesboro, and it is hoped that she will be speedily restored to health.

M. E. Pate, of White's Bend, the famous watermelon raiser of the county, brought in his first load of nice melons and cantelopes Saturday, and as usual, they were all sold before the editor had time to get across town. Mr. Pate sold $700 worth last year, and has a bumper crop again this season. We are resting easy as far as the melon business is concerned. He's coming back.

CENOTAPHS FOR OUR SOLDIERS

Who rest in France.

We are in a position to furnish Cenotaphs for your son who sleeps in France.

WHAT CENOTAPHS ARE AND HOW USED.

A Cenotaph is a monument erected at home for a person who rests elsewhere, and is of far greater importance in remembrance of the dead than a monument at the grave of a beloved.

We have them in special soldier designs with the emblems of the different branches of service.

The are usually worded as follows:

Privt. Frank Smith

1916-1918

For Democracy

At Cantigny, France

If you have a son resting over-seas then why not see in regard to a Cenotaph.

CARTHAGE MARBLE WORKS, Carthage, Tenn.

At Auction

500 ACRES, A REAL CORN FARM, ONE MILE FRONT ON CUMBERLAND RIVER
SUBDIVIDED AND AS A WHOLE

TUESDAY, AUG. 17
AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

On the premises, in the 12th District of Smith County, four miles below Rome, three miles from Dixon Spring, between two surveyed highways on main road leading from these points, near schools and churches; no better section. The W. C. Caplenor farm, now owned by A. B. Ward.

A PROVEN MONEY MAKER

No better corn, grass and tobacco farm to be found on Cumberland river from Nashville to Burnside. Will grow any crop in this climate.

FARM NO. 1—Containing 200 acres, 150 acres in cultivation, 125 acres on island; the best farm in Smith county, with good two story residence, in good repair, all necessary out houses, good barn and stables, everlasting spring and well, hogs cannot stop the flow of water. Divided in convenient fields and pastures. Good garden and orchard. No better place for tractor.

FARM NO 2—Containing about 130 acres, divided into three lots, known as Fiveash farm. About one-half in cultivation, balance in grass; no better stock farm to be found. Good six room house, barn and other necessary out buildings, well, cistern and spring for all purposes.

FARM NO 3—Known as Bluff lot, containing about 100 acres. No better blue grass land to be found. Everlasting spring.

TRACT NO. 4—Containing about 70 acres; about 12 acres in cultivation, some fine land to clear for tobacco, or other crops. Very rich, good grass land.

These lands are all well fenced and watered. All front on main road, as a whole you cannot beat it as a money maker.

Terms made known on date of sale and will be very liberal.

One hundred extra good stock ewes.

I also have several hundred acres in Trousdale county that I will sell privately.

SEE ME A. B. WARD

Or write Miss Lucile Ward and sisters, agent, Lebanon, Tenn., R-11; Phone 336.

HON. BILLY WILSON, Auctioneer

NON-RESIDENCE NOTICE.

Frank Swan, et al,

vs

Willie Swan, et al.

In the County Court of Jackson County at Gainesboro, Tennessee.

In this cause it appearing from the bill, which is sworn to, that Luther Swan, is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, and he is hereby required to appear on, or before the first Monday in Oct. 1920, before the clerk of the County Court, at his office in the town of Gainesboro, and make defense to the bill filed against him and others in the above styled case, in this court, by Frank Swan, et al, or otherwise the bill will be taken for confessed as to him.

It is further ordered, that this notice be published in the Jackson County Sentinel, a newspaper published in Gainesboro, Tenn., for four consecutive weeks.

This 10th day of August 1920.

G. Lee McGlasson
County Court Clerk.

B. C. Butler, Solicitor.

FOR RENT—I would like to sub-rent the A. M. McCain farm on Roaring river, to some good reliable man for next year for cash rent. I would like to rent it as early as possible, so if you are interested in renting a good farm for next year, see me at once. Geo. A. Dudney, Jr., Gainesboro R-1. Home phone.

Automobile Salesman Commends Nature's Self-Starter He Recognizes That After The Storm Comes The Depressing Calm.

Mr. A. J. Smith, sales manager of the Studebaker Corporation, St. Louis writes; "I am pleased to advise that the Ferraline I used at the request of Mr. E. B' Barnes, President of Alabama Lumber & Supply Co., has done all that was claimed for it. I had had a bad case of pneumonia and was all run down and in a very bad condition. While still in this weak condition, I began taking Ferraline and it cured me entirely and I feel as well as I ever did."

If you are all run-down, your system out of order and you have no appetite and need a general tonic, you can secure the benefits Mr. Smith has enjoyed if you will try the great Mineral Tonic FERRALINE that is endorsed by the best people of the country.

FERRALINE IS NATURE'S REAL SELF-STARTER.

FERRALINE can be had from your druggist or write "FERRALINE" Demopolis, Alabama.

Stanton McCormack was cleared of the charge of assault and battery, with intent to commit murder on the two Ramsey boys of the Granville district, Tuesday, when the case was heard before Esqs. S. S. Carver and John C. Clemons. Local attorneys, H. Grady and C C Gore, represented the defendant and P. J. Anderson the state.

FOR SALE—Ford touring car, and a dandy good one. Will sell at a bargain. This car is in A1 condition. If interested see me at once. Claude Robrerts, Gainesboro.

FOR SALE—Ford roadster, 1918 Model, comparatively new casings. In good condition. Sell cheap for cash or good note. A. R. McCawley, Haydenburg, Tenn. R-2